TRICYCLE

Inspired by Reading's historic tricycle, RG Spaces is bringing its Information Tricycle to events and public spaces in support of Reading Year of Culture 2016.

It'll display information about what's on in a fun, friendly and flexible way as the year progresses. It's free of charge so if you'd like it to be at your event or to visit your space contact : tricycle@rgspaces.org.uk

A small new local charity (registered no. 1160023), we aim to work with partners to help enhance some of Reading's cultural & heritage spaces and the understanding & enjoyment of them.

TEA
TRICYCLE

Warrick's in Caversham Road made the famous Wall's Ice Cream 'Stop me and buy one' tricycles.

Their tricycles had many different uses.

Some were even requisitioned for military duty.

You can admire their tea tricycle in Reading Museum's café.
